NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—The following letter has been sent to the governor of New York state by the committee on sanitation on board the quarantined steamship Normannia:

To the Hon. R. P. Flower, Governor of the State of New York:

The undersigned committee, representing the first and second cabin passengers of the steamship Normannia, now in quarantine, in the port of New York, respectfully show:

"That as good citizens, we cheerfully submit to such detention as may be deemed necessary by sanitary experts for the preservation of public health, but we hold that while undergoing such necessary quarantine, we are entitled, at the hands of the authorities to as much care and protection against infection as any other body of healthy citizens; as any persons innocent of crime and suffering discomfort in the public interest it is our right to have that discomfort reduced to a minimum, and to this end no expense should be spared, or reasonable precautions neglected. But such measures have not been taken and five hundred persons, mostly citizens of the United States, have been exposed to infection to their own danger and the danger of the public. To show this to be true, we submit the following facts:

We have been detained since 4 o'clock Saturday morning by order of the health officers, and yet during that time no official inspection of the ship or visit to the sick has been made by the officers or any one presenting himself as an expert or other aid has been furnished to superintend the disinfection of the ship, but this work has been left entirely to the captain and his crew. Disinfectants, asked for and promised, have not been furnished, so that the work of disinfection begun by the ship's officials has been stopped. No means has been provided for communication with the health officer, with the result that the sick and the dead have been retained on the ship for an undue time.

Fresh water has not been provided to replace that put on board from the Elbe, although application has been made therefor, and the water tanks of the ship have been emptied, cleaned and otherwise made ready to receive it. We hereby solemnly declare that at this moment there is no illness among the cabin passengers, nor has there been for eight days, nor is there any undue excitement, much less panic amongst them. Can it be possible that the national government, the governor, president and people of New York will permit 500 of their fellow citizens to be longer penned up on this ship without proper inspection or even any knowledge on the part of any official, federal or state, that the ship has been properly disinfected? Therefore we pray that your excellency will put at the disposal of the health officer such competent and expert assistance with every appliance necessary to enable him to at once take charge of this ship and put the same in a perfect sanitary condition and thus relieve us from our present jeopardy.

Now that you know the truth we venture to hope that you will act promptly. Longer delay in this matter seems to us to approach criminality. We subjoin hereto the report of the passenger committee on sanitation. All of which is respectfully submitted:

J. R. McPHERSON.
THEO. HEINROTH.

DR. F. L. LANG.

The undersigned sanitary committee appointed by the cabin passengers on board the steamship Normania, regard it their duty to appeal to public opinion, in view of the following considerations and facts: It seems inconceivable that the 500 heretofore healthy people should be quarantined on board an infected ship, and that it is impossible to isolate them at a place thus far not infected. They emphatize this point so much more as from all appearances the measures taken to disinfect the Normannia have been incomplete and void of that speedy, energetic and systematic mode of proceeding which is necessary to entirely counteract the damaging influences to which all are exposed. In reference to these points, they submit the following facts:

First—At no time have there been facilities to remove the sick immediately after the onset of the cholera symptoms. Even dead bodies have been kept on board for twenty-four hours or more.

Second—At no time an official, thorough inspection of the ship has been made, nor have any measures been taken with regard to disinfection except such as were possible with the insufficient supply of disinfecting material carried on board.

Third—Disinfecting material has not been furnished promptly in spite of the request of the ship authorities. Their demand made on Saturday to place on board the ship an official expert to supervise and execute thorough disinfection has not been complied with.

Fourth—The water supply of the ship has not been taken care of in the proper way, although by Monday morning the tanks were clean and ready to receive fresh water. The supply of fresh water immediately after the arrival of the ship should have been a main point of sanitary importance.

We are on the sixth day of quarantine. If, therefore, in spite of such a condition of things, the passengers are oblidged to remain in quarantine on board the Normannia, the undersigned deem it their duty to demand the execution of such measures under the supervision of official experts as are apt to remove sufficiently the danger to which, under the given circumstances, the occupants of the ship are constantly exposed.

Arrived, steamer Britanic, from Liverpool, passed Sandy Hook. She signals all well. Steamer Wieland, from Hamburg, passed Sandy Hook this morning and anchored in the lower bay. At 8:05 this morning the Wieland and Normannia were flying yellow flags. Steamer Joseph John, from Hamburg August 20, arrived this morning.

The vessels in upper quarantine are the Stubbenhuk, Spree, Wyoming, Corean, Diamant, Obdam, Dubbledam and Saratoga. In lower quarantine Moravia, Normannia, Rugia and Wieland.

Abram S. Hewitt has generously offered the use of Plum Island to the health authorities if they can use it for quarantine purposes, in order to relieve the dangerous detention of passengers on infected ships.

According to cables received from United States consuls abroad, no Americans are ill or in danger of cholera.

QUARANTINE, Sept. 9.—The Hamburg-American steamer Wieland arrived in the lower bay and anchored at 7:15 this morning, and was detained. She is flying the yellow flag. While this does not necessarily mean that she had cholera on board, yet the health authorities believe that the scourge appeared during the voyage. The Normannia is also flying the yellow flag this morning. In her case it means more sickness on board. The Weiland is reported to have only cabin passengers.

The names of the children who died on the Wyoming are Elcia Phepper, Persian, aged three months, and Victoria Eleaka, Persian, aged six months. At 11 a. m. it is reported that two children and their mother are sick on the Wyoming with symptoms of cholera. Dr. Jenkins says all those who have been in contact with them will be sent to Hoffman Island. The United States ship New Hampshire has been towed to the Hamburg dock, at Hoboken, where she will be fitted up at once for service at lower quarantine.

At 10 o'clock Dr. Jenkins returned from a visit to the Guion line steamer Wyoming, which arrived here Wednesday night. Two children were dead on board the vessel last night. Dr. Jenkins is reticent about the matter, but the cases are regarded as suspects, and the Wyoming may be ordered to the lower bay at any moment. Dr. Walser has been sent to inspect the Wieland, which is now anchored in lower quarantine. The yellow flag was raised at Hoffman Island at 10:30 a. m.. The steamer Wyoming, which has been in quarantine since September 6, has been sent to lower quarantine.

The mother and her two children reported sick with symptoms of cholera on the Wyoming left Russia three weeks ago. Three nurses were taken to Swinburne island this morning by Dr. Walser on the tug Manhattan. They wore Kings Daughter's badges and were from the Presbyterian hospital. Their names could not be obtained.

LONDON, Sept. 9.—A patient died in the Kensington infirmary today from cholera morbus. There is no suspicion that it was anything else.

MADRID, Sept. 7.—The Spanish authorities have ordered all vessels arriving from London to be subject to quarantine.

HAVRE, Sept. 9.—The sum of 85,000 francs has been subscribed in two days for the relief of cholera victims and of those who have been thrown out of employment in consequence of the obstruction of business on account of cholera.

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 9.—The Detroit board of health yesterday leased the excursion steamer Milton D. Ward for two years, and will convert her into a floating hospital for use in caring for cholera patients or emigrants detained. It is estimated that it will cost $2,000 per month to maintain the vessel. The railroads, in spite of their announcements that they would not ship any more immigrants until quarantine is raised, brought several carloads to Detroit yesterday. The immigrants were stopped at Windsor, Ont., disinfected and released and were then allowed to cross the border. The disinfection at Windsor was made by the Detroit authorities through the courtesy of the Canadian officials.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—At the request of Secretary of Treasury Foster, the war department has consented to the use of part of the government reservation at Sandy Hook for quarantine purposes. This action of the department in suddenly reversing its ruling of yesterday was brought about by a peremptory telegram from President Harrison to Acting Secretary Grant, directing him to turn over to the New York health officers such portion of the Sandy Hook reservation as Secretary of Treasury Foster might indicate.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 9.—Throughout Russia on Tuesday there were according to official reports 3,761 new cases and 1,431 deaths against 4,601 new cases and 2,540 deaths on Monday. This is a decrease from Monday of 843 cases and 1,109 deaths. In St. Petersburg Thursday the new cases numbered 103, sixteen less than on Wednesday and thirty-one deaths, a decrease of eight. Of the patients in the hospitals of St. Petersburg eighty-two were discharged yesterday as cured.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—The Wieland, which arrived this morning at quarantine, sailed from Cux Haven on August 28 with 157 cabin passengers. No steerage passengers were carried. Among the passengers are John C. H. Agar. consul; Henry B. Jewitt, Dr. B. F. Becker, Miss Marie Hinkel, Dr. Wm. Rausch and Dr. W. A. Ford.

The Stonington arrived from New Haven this morning. She will be tied up to her deck at pier 36, North river, and the work of cleaning her will be pushed as rapidly as possible. When this work is finished she will be turned over to the Hamburg steamship people, who will take her to their Hoboken docks, where she will be fitted out and provisioned. It is not expected that she will be in condition to receive the Normannia's passengers until tomorrow.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 19.—Governor Flower having received a query about the use of Fire island for cholera patients, telegraphed to Acting Private Secretary Colonel Judson this morning to have the attorney general look the matter up. Mr. Rosendale said to the United Press reporter this morning: "I have written no opinion in the matter, but have simply talked to Colonel Judson about it. I have no news for the public." Colonel Judson said: "The governor telegraphed me to have the matter looked up, for the state's right to use the island. The attorney general has given no written opinion in the matter but fails to find any statute under which the land, which is private property, can be seized. The nearest approach in the status is the law which allows the health board of the city of New York to sieze buildings and use them for the plague stricken. That, however, will not cover this case. All the facts have been telegraphed to the governor."

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY.

Three Men Make a Daring Attempt to Raid an Express Office, But Fail.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 9.—A very daring attempt to rob the office of the Southern Express company in this city was made at an early hour this morning. Officer Creagh watches the big building, which fronts on Perdido street. At 3:30 this morning three men came up to him, placed a pistol to his head and ordered him to surrender. They had the officer at a disadvantage and he could do nothing. The thieves then tied the officer to a post and went into the building. An attache of the office, Mr. Peck, saw them and started toward them. They commanded him to halt, but, though unarmed, he paid no attention to them. One of the men fired a shot, which fortunately did not take effect. Mr. Peck kept on advancing towards the men and evidently fearing that he was armed and that the shooting would bring assistance, they started and ran from the building. Chase was given them when assistance arrived and one of the men was caught. He proved to be a man named Clifford, an employe of the company. The other two men turned into St. Charles street and escaped.

A FAT OFFICE.

Ernest Huffcutt Appointed to a Secretaryship.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 9.—A special from Bloomington, Ind., announces that Ernest Huffcutt, of that place, has been appointed secretary of legation at St. Petersburg by United States Minister White.

THE NEXT VICE-PRESIDENT.

The Hon. Adlia E. Stevenson passed through this city last night for Terre Haute, arriving there at 2:30 this morning. This morning he and his party went to Clay City, in the heart of the Indiana coal mining region, where he addressed a large crowd. Congressmen Hunter, of Illinois, and Brookshire, of Indiana, also made speeches.

Mrs. Mary Hellings, of Findlay, Ohio, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Samuel Kariger, at 187 Harmer street.

CLEVER CORBETT.

He Will Contribute $1,000 and Spar at the Sullivan Benefit Entertainment in New York.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—It has not yet been decided whether Sullivan will have a benefit at Madison Square garden, New York, and probably will not until the party returns north. Corbett announced that if a benefit was held he would pay $1,000 for a box and would appear and spar with the beneficiary.

William Muldoon, Sullivan's old trainer, was seen by a reporter last night. When asked if the result was a surprise to him, he said: "No it was not a surprise, as far as Corbett was concerned, as I well knew Corbett as a fighter. I do not think Sullivan was in fit condition. I do not think that he is too old; he should be good for two years yet. I think he could be put in condition today to make the greatest fight of his life, but it would require a longer period of training than he devoted for his fight with Corbett. I believe that Sullivan today is clever enough and well enough preserved, if he was in proper condition, or the condition he could be put in, to hold his own with Corbett or any other man. If he was matched again I would be willing to run the risk of being one of his backers against any living man, provided he is willing to let me have my way about putting him in condition."

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Sept. 9.—Thomas Roomey, of Plymouth, having lost all his money and property on the result of the Sullivan-Corbett fight, committed suicide last night by taking poison.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 9.—Duncan B. Harrison, who is in town, said: "Well, I'm satisfied. The big brute has been whipped, and, thank the powers, he got it good and hard. Wednesday I sent to him this telegram:

"To John L. Sullivan, New Orleans:

"When you are being licked tonight, as you will be, remember the dirty tricks you have played upon me in the past. You know what I think of you. Your hour has come.

"[Signed]

"DUNCAN B. HARRISON."

"I'm going to the telegraph office now to send another message," continued the actor. "I want to tell him how glad I am that he got smashed so hard that 'mudder' would not know him."

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 9.—Last night Corbett appeared in "After Dark" at the opera house here. President Noel handed him a check for $25,000. The champion was given an ovation. Corbett replied very briefly, but made no allusion to the man he had defeated until somebody in the audience shouted, "Sullivan is a duffer." Quick as a flash the new champion turned whence the voice had proceeded, and exclaimed, "No man ever told Sullivan that to his face, and no man should say it behind his back." His reply was received with a volley of cheers. Corbett bears his honors modestly. Congratulatory messages from all parts of this country, England, Ireland and Australia have been flowing in on him all day. They number somewhat over a thousand and are still coming.

ELECTROCUTED.

A Light Tender Found Dead on the Streets.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Sept. 9.—At 12:45 o'clock this morning Police Officer Bowley found the lifeless body of John Hoxwinter lying against the base of an electric light pole at the corner of Fifth avenue and Stevenson street. Hoxwinter was a light tender in the employ of Allegheny County Light company. He had ascended the pole to trim the light and had evidently been electrocuted. His left hand and arm were terribly burned. The top of his head had been crushed in by his fall from the forty-five foot pole. Hoxwinter was single. His father, who was also a light inspector, was electrocuted about a year ago.

CRESPO VICTORIOUS.

He Has Been Invited to Assume Command at Caracas.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—A special cable from Curaco says General Luciano Mendoza has resigned the reins of power and has left Caracas, preparatory, it is believed, to leaving the country. Second Vice President Iturbe takes temporary control, but his term of power will not last long, as Villegas Pulido has invited Crespo to enter the city and assume command. Full amnesty has been guaranteed the people of Caracas.

HARRISON AND REID

Will Each Attend Political Meetings Soon.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—From a bulletin issued at the republican national league yesterday it appears that President Harrison will visit Buffalo during the league convention, which meets there September 15. Whitelaw Reid will leave for Ohio today to attend a mass meeting at Woodsdale tomorrow.

A SHORT HONEYMOON.

Frank Garvin Kills His Wife Shortly After Marriage.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 9.—Frank Garvin, artist, employed by the Commercial Gazette, shot and instantly killed his bride of a few days at their residence on Avery street, Allegheny city, just before noon today. The particulars of the tragedy are not yet known. Mrs. Gravin, formerly Cora Redpath, was for a number of years a trapeze actress with Barnum's show and was widely known. She was about twenty years of age. Her father, Homer Redpath, recently removed his family to Chicago, where they now reside.

HELD UP THE TRAIN.

Five Men Stop a Texas Train and Throw the Express Safe Out—They Get No Booty.

GUTHRIE, O. T., Sept. 9.—The southbound Texas express No. 40, on the Santa Fe road, was held up at Wharton, I. T., a few miles from Guthrie, by five masked men at 10:45 o'clock last night. They took the safe from the express car, but secured no booty. When the train reached Wharton the robbers clambered upon the train at various points. Two took charge of the engine and others attacked the express car and still others intimated the passengers. They kept up an almost incessant firing from their revolvers. Messenger Wagoner, of the Wells Fargo Express company, was overpowered and the men took charge of the safe, throwing it out of the car. They then spent twenty-five minutes trying to force it open and being unsuccessful, rode away firing their pistols and yelling as they secured absolutely no booty.

CANAL TOLLS.

A Prominent Canadian Expresses His Views in Uncomplimentary Terms to Harrison.

BOSTON, Sept. 9.—Hon. Peter Mitchell, ex-minister of fisheries of the Dominion of Canada, is in this city on a brief visit. In conversation Mr. Mitchell expressed himself forcibly on the canal tolls question. He said the breach of contract laid more with the United States government than with the dominion. Mr. Mitchell said that President Harrison's proclamation has practically affected the trade of Montreal very little, and that the transportation men chiefly affected by it supported the Canadian government in the policy pursued. The disposition of the people of Canada, he said, was to have the utmost freedom of trade with the United States. "We realize the greatness of the American country," said Mr. Mitchell, "with her immense trade markets within herself, but notwithstanding this, we believe that, while the McKinley bill fences around that market for the farmers and manufacturers of the United States, it does it at the risk of the purchasers. While we in Canada may be made for a time to feel the effects of it, it may possibly react by making us more dependent upon our own resources, and creating within our own country those very manufactures which would otherwise be supplied from the United States."

BADLY HURT.

A Pittsburg Brakeman Meets a Horrible Accident—The Poor Fellow May Die.

As we go to press Otis Oberchain, a brakeman on the Pittsburg road, is at St. Joseph's undergoing the painful operation of having his legs amputated. Shortly after noon the man met with a horrible accident. He was attempting to make a coupling at Crestline, when he fell and the wheels pessed over him. Both his legs are broken and mangled in a frightful manner, one ankle dislocated and a hand crushed.

Otis is a married man, but his wife and two children live at Parsons, Kansas, where the husband and father intended to join them next week preparatory to moving to this city. During his stay in this city Oberchain boarded at No. 36 Baker street. His wife has been notified by telegraph of the sad accident, and she will probably arrive in the city tomorrow evening.

LATER.

At 3 o'clock a telephone message from the hospital stated that Oberchain was so weak from the effects of his injuries that the attending physicians decided not to continue with the amputation. He cannot live.

LOCAL LINES.

Mrs. M. E. Hover and son, Don, of Denver, Col., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Barcus.

Dr. Geary, of Coesse, has made an application for the ten-year-old son of Wm. Brokon, of Jefferson township, into the Indiana school for feeble minded youths.

Frederick Eckert, the pork packer, on West Main street, has offered to give $2,000 toward erecting a new sewer, commencing at Mill creek and leading east through Nebraska to Third street. His proposition has been filed with the city clerk and it is expected to come up at the next council meeting.

August Contant, of the Pittsburg shops, and Henry Mayer, of Decatur, Ind., have applied for a patent, through the patent firm of Chapin & Denny, on a device by which a large brick pile, consisting of several thousand bricks, can be covered and protected from storms, etc., in less than a minute, by the service of one man. Heretofore it has taken several men to cover a pile up and then, in a severe storm, would be damaged.

Jake Kilrain, when asked what he thought of the New Orleans fight, said: "Sullivan did wrong to fight Corbett. When we fought two years ago in New Orleans, I knew then, although he remained champion, he had sufficient reason for retiring on his laurels. The fight shows that Corbett was a much more skillful fighter and the best man Sullivan ever tackled. One great mistake of Sullivan, after determining to fight Corbett, was in his training."

BERKMAN TALKS.

If His Sentence is More Than Ten Years' Imprisonment He Will Kill Himself.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Sept. 9.—"If I don't get more than ten years I can stand it, but I will not stand any longer term of sentence," said Anarchist Berkman, in talking about his coming trial and resulting sentence. "Do you mean you will kill yourself if you get more than ten years?" was asked. "Well, you can draw your own conclusions. I believe there is nothing beyond this life, and while life under some circumstances is desirable, there is not enough in it for me to spend a lifetime in prison with the prospect of a few years of liberty after my sentence has expired. I have no fears for the hereafter, because I believe there is none. I have studied this question and am fully determined. I fully realize the consequence of any attempt on the life of Mr. Frick. I did so when I attempted to kill him, and was prepared to suffer the consequences had he died. I would prefer to hang rather than spend a lifetime in prison. I know I could get about thirty years, but it is either ten years with me or, well, you will see." Berkman cooly talks of his crimes and expresses only one regret, that his mission failed. He does not give Mr. Frick credit for the coolness and nerve claimed for him when the assault took place. He said: "He was the worst scared man I ever saw. He believed I meant to kill him, as I certainly did, and he had a right to be scared, as he certainly was. "In all his talk Berkman steadily refused to speak of any one else in connection with the assault and shoulders the whole responsibility.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

Mr. and Mrs. Bahret Lose Their Twins—Other Deaths.

Mr. and Mrs. Christian Bahret, of 38 John street, are receiving more than their share of the sorrow of this world. Yesterday morning Mary, one of their babies, died, and ten hours later, Pauline, the other one of the twins, expired, both dying from exhaustion. The double funeral was held at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The children were twenty-one days old.

The funeral of the late Victoria Gessler, who died Wednesday night, will be held at 9 a. m. Saturday from the residence of her son-in-law, Theodore Bly, on the old Piqua road, and at 9:30 from the St. Mary's Catholic church. Mrs. Gessler was born in Wurtemburg, Weilderstadt, Germany, on the 19th of December, 1819, and came to this country in 1847, landing at Dayton, Ohio. She came to Fort Wayne in 1863, and since that time has made this city her home. She leaves five children who greatly mourn her death. They are Albert A., Mrs. Theodore Bly, Mrs. Frederick Briel, Mrs. Louis B. Ellert and Mrs. Jennie C. Gessler.

The funeral of Wm. B. Reed will take place tomorrow morning at 8:30 from the house and 9 o'clock from the Cathedral.

AFTER BANDITS.

A Well-Planned Scheme for Their Capture Fails.

HAVANA, Sept. 9.—Dispatches from Matanzas say that on August 30 Senor Vega, a colonist of the "Nena" estate, was kidnapped by five mounted and armed men, who led him to the woods and demanded $1,000 for his liberty. The prisoner, under threats of vengeance in the event of his playing false, was released on his promise to procure the sum demanded, and to return with it to the bandits. Signor Vega informed the authorities of his adventure and he was instructed to go back where the bandits were waiting and to allay their suspicions until a force of soldiers, who would be secretely dispatched to the scene, could surprise and capture the outlaws. He provided himself with the money required and, arriving at the bandits' rendezvous, was engaged in counting out the ransom when the outlaws discovered the approaching guards and fled. The guards fired on them and pursued them for some distance, but all succeeded in making their escape. It is stated that the famous Matagis and the not less famous Roderigues were among the bandits.

EIGHT HOUR RULE.

The Trades Union Congress at Glasgow on the Question.

LONDON, Sept. 9.—The Trades Union congress in session at Glasgow had an exciting debate today on the question whether it was desirable to have enforced by parliamentary enactments an eight-hour day for every trade in the kingdom. The opponents of an eight-hour law supported their position with earnestness and energy, but the motion in favor of eight hours received unexpected sympathy from a number of representatives of the cotton manufacturing districts, who in Lencashire have heretofore been opposed to the eight-hour principle. The resolution of an eight-hour working day compulsory law was passed with the proviso that any trade except the miners should be empowered by a vote of the majority to exempt itself from the eight-hour limit.

THE OLDEST ACTOR.

Thomas H. Hadaway Dies at New York Wednesday.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—Thomas H. Hadaway, who was known to the theatrical profession as the oldest actor in this country, died of valvular disease of the heart on Wednesday, at the home of his son-in-law, William A. Senior, in Montgomery, N. Y., aged ninety-one years.

A DULL DAY.

But Little Doing in the Courts, But the News of the Day is Given.

Frank V. Davis and Jessie E. Thomas have been licensed to wed.

No new cases of interest were filed in either the circuit or superior courts today.

There were two drunks in police court this morning. Both were sent to jail.

The lawyers, the judges and the squires are attending the races and as a consequence there is nothing of an interesting character in the courts.

The grand jury have returned the following indictments: James Weaver and John Weaver, selling liquor to minors; Harry Hibler, Lewis Crance, Wm. Koehneman, George Bucks, Patrick O'Brien, Chas. Weeks, Bradley Staley, Thomas Mahew and John Waters for larceny.

At 10 o'clock last evening Chief Wilkinson and a posse of police raided the Mattie Clark house of ill resort, on Superior street, and arrested four girls and seven men. The occupants of the house each put up $15.50 for their appearance at police court this morning, which was forfeited. The mayor assessed fines to this amount.

Litigation is pending in the Johnson county circuit court involving the estate of the late Joseph Hughes, of Edinburg. Before the war Hughes married a woman in Ohio, and was subsequently convicted of horse stealing. After the expiration of his sentence he drifted to Edinburg, where he married again. He left an estate valued at $5,000, and wife No. 1 is suing to recover $2,500.

Ellis Smith, the hostler, who robbed the safe of Felton & Son's livery stable on the night of the 24th ult., and who was captured the next day at Fort Wayne, says the Valparaiso Messenger, came before Judge Gillett Friday. A portion of the money was found upon Smith when arrested, in a Fort Wayne house of ill fame. He was found guilty and sentenced to four years in the penitentiary. Smith was almost a stranger in the town, and had been employed as night man at the barn for a little over a week. The safe was accidentally left unlocked, and the next morning Smith and its cash contents had disappeared.

Judge Friedley has continued the suit against Henry Lawrence, pending in the Jefferson circuit court, because of the flight of the defendant. Away back in the fifties Lawrence married and settled at McKeesport, Pa. Six years later he deserted his wife and children. As alleged in the suit now pending he fled from Pennsylvania to Shelby county, Kentucky, where he was received in the family of Col. Thomas Nelson, one of the foremost men of that section. While Colonel Nelson was serving with the confederate army Lawrence eloped with his daughter, sixteen years old, and they settled in Dearborn county, Indiana. While in Dearborn county three daughters resulted from the union. In time the family removed to Jefferson county, and two years ago to Madison. Wife No. 1 and four children continued to live in McKeesport, and accidently some months ago the wife secured trace of her husband. Accompanied by her daughter Rachel, wife No. 1 went to Madison and instituted suit, and immediately after the papers were served Lawrence disappeared. On the 17th of April last Lawrence and wife No. 2 went to Bedford. Trimble county, Kentucky, where they were married the second time.

In the circuit court yesterday the case of the Zimmerman Manufacturing company against Wageman and others, was settled and dismissed. In the superior court, suit on an account of $250 has been commenced by George B. M. Bower against Oliver Babcock; C. W. Kuhne is the attorney for the plaintiff. Dismissals were entered in the case of Hendrick Knodler against Frederick Knodler, and Philip Zuber against Joseph W. Bell and others. The term expired yesterday, but the new one commences on Monday next.

The statement of the state prison north for August, 1892, shows that the number of convicts in the prison the 1st of the month was 790; received, 11; discharged, 39; pardoned, 1; escaped, 1; died, 2; number in prison last day of month, 758. The earnings for the month were $9,511.03 and expenditures $6,828.99; net earnings over expenses, $2,862.84.

Auditor of State Henderson yesterday drew a warrant for September maintenance for the deaf and dumb institution, amounting to $3,412.55. Warrants were also drawn for the central hospital for the insane as follows: Maintenance, $19,170.60; repairs, $974.07; clothing, $576.70.

TO BE a gentleman and to live like a gentleman ought to be the same; but in common acceptation, they have no connection, are indeed often opposed. To be a gentleman means a great deal—far more than many who claim to be gentlemen have any conception of. To live like a gentleman refers generally to externals alone, to outside presentation, to keeping up appearances.

IN the death of Rose Terry Cooke, American literature has lost an author whose simplicity was her greatest charm. Her pen-pictures of rural life in New England will never be forgotten.

MASCOTTE WINS,

Breaking the Oval Track Record—Time, 2:08 1-4—Other Horses Make Good Time.

Yesterday's races were the most exciting thus far of the Fort Wayne Trotting association's fall meeting and the attendance was far ahead of that of the preceding days. All the railroad trains brought in throngs of people from Bluffton, Huntington, Decatur, Warsaw, Defiance, Van Wert and other cities in this part of Indiana and Ohio. The gate receipts show that over 6,000 people were at the races, and of these the ladies formed no small portion.

Some famous horses, including trotters not entered in the races, were put on exhibition between heats, among them Monbars, Direct, San Pedro and Flying Jib. Flying Jib made a trip around the track and was greatly admired for his appearance and speed. He is booked to fill engagements at some of the leading fall meetings of the country.

Mascotte broke the record of the oval track in the free-for-all pace yesterday, making a mile in 2:08¼, and doing it easy, too. This horse is owned by the Lang Stock company, of Buffalo, and was driven by W. J. Andrews. The last quarter mile was made in thirty-one second. Mascotte is a bay gelding.

Nidia, Centlivre's two-year-old colt, is another lively stepper and won the two-year-old pacing race. Other horses owned by the Centlivre Brothers did equally as well.

The two-year-old three minute and the three-year-old 2:40 pace were unfinished and were the first races on the program today.

The following were the summaries:

Time, 2:11¼, 2:11½, 2:08¼.

The races today will be hotly contested, though perhaps no such speed as Mascotte showed will be made. Nevertheless the races will be interesting and the amount of money won and lost much greater than any of the preceding races.

In the 2:30 pace the contest will be between Prima Dona and Bobby Burns, judging from the way the betting is going. The former appears to be the favorite.

The 2:20 trot will be a race for blood. Such favorites as So Long, Mattie H., Coralloid, Jenny Sprague and Florida will contest for the prizes.

The 2:16 pace will be fought for by the most evenly balanced field of the meeting last night. Mary Centlivre was a slight favorite last night, but Black Dick, Charley Pond and Ella Brown were almost up to her and any one of them may be favorite in today's betting.

Then comes the 2:15 trot, with Little Albert, Charleston, Ryland T. and Aline, as starters. In the pools Little Albert is a big favorite.

The program offered for tomorrow will be quite in keeping with those of the preceeding days. The card shows three races with possibly a race carried over from today. The regular events are the free-for-all trot; the 2:19 pace and the 2:30 trot.

For the free-for-all trot there will be but three starters, but these three are stars of the first magnitude and a new trotting record for the track will surely be made. Walter E., 2:13¼; Tobasco, 2:11¼, and Vic H., 2:13¼, will be the contestants.

The 2:19 pace will have a first field of starters, among them being Min Young, Shawhan, Barney, Atlantic King, Cleveland S. and Venture.

The final race of the week will be the 2:30 trot, in which twenty-two horses are entered and in which a large field will start. As yet no favorites have developed for the race.

THE LONDON RACES.

LONDON, Sept. 9.—The race for the Doncaster cup today was won by Chesterfield, a four-year-old chestnut colt by Wisdom, out of Bramble. Mr. H. C. Bonsor's three-year-old chestnut colt, Thessalian, by Wisdom, out of Pickle, was second and the three-year-old brown filly, Brandy, by Retreat, out of Restorative, was third.

WHEN a famous man does wrong, a great many parents will begin to deny that they named their children for him. The number of foolish people who name their children for great men before the men are dead, and past doing disgraceful acts, is very large. The government has better sense; it never puts a great man's picture on a stamp, note or bond until after he is dead. The only good men to be depended upon are dead.

HERE is a pointer for the damage lawyers: The Superior Court of Massachusetts has decided that the voluntary witness of a display of pyrotechnics suffers no legal wrong if he is accidentally injured by a wild rocket. Remember this on the Fourth.

P. W. Russell, of Arcola, is in the city attending the races.

DURING the present excitement over cholera it would be well to look after the poultry houses and yards in the city. A city ordinance makes it unlawful for any person to keep or maintain a coop in which chickens, turkeys, geese or ducks are kept within a distance of fifty feet from any dwelling.

IT is estimated by a member of the club that the total receipts for the three fights at New Orleans amounted to $140,000. The total expenses were not far from $60,000, including a $25,000 purse to Corbett, $7,500 to Dixon and $10,000 to McAuliffe. The club has paid for its magnificent new house out of the net receipts.

THE government is now preparing the new $50 notes, pursuant to an act of congress of July, 1890. The notes will have a vignette of General Sherman from a full faced engraving. It is now proposed to issue a bank note souvenir in honor of the quadro centennial of the discovery of America. The $1 note will probably be chosen for the souvenir.

THERE was a very large meeting of old soldiers at the democratic headquarters last night. President M. V. B. Spencer presided and C. E. Webber was at the desk. The veterans resolved to organize a marching club and styled it the Allen County Soldiers' Democratic club and the following officers were chosen: Captain, James Peltier; first lieutenant, Patrick Ryan; second lieutenant, D. B. Kehler. The club will assemble at 7 o'clock Saturday evening and escort General Black to the rink.

ON October 1 some radical changes will be made by the Western Union Telegraph company in the manner of counting the words in a message. At present where figures are used each figure and division is counted one word. After the above date they will be counted in groups of three, which will constitute one word. Each punctuation mark will be counted one word, whereas at present they are not counted at all. The new rule will effect quite a saving in the tolls paid by commercial houses.

NO PERSON who attended the national democratic convention in 1880, in Cincinnati, will ever forget the impressed eloquence of Daniel Dougherty who announced the candidacy of General Hancock. The occasion was auspicious for harmonizing sectional differences and uniting the forces north and south. That great leader, Samuel J. Tilden, had by letter just withdrawn his name from the consideration of the convention, and the best man for the country was the person the delegates were looking for. Several were suggested before Pennsylvania was called. None other than General Hancock was seriously considered after Daniel Dougherty concluded his speech. And when the brilliant Daniels, of Virginia, gracefully seconded the nomination of the Union general, the work was practically over. It was Hancock, the man whom Dorsey's purchase of votes in Indiana defeated. Again, in 1884, at St. Louis, the voice of Daniel Dougherty was heard, this time in nominating Grover Cleveland. He made a great speech and was cheered to the echo. The death of this matchless orator and great lawyer is to be regretted. A leading attorney in the courts of Pennsylvania and New York, a citizen of lofty impulses, and a democrat of unswerving devotion, his removal by death is a loss to good politics and to the public.

A HARRISON CHILL.

It is a severe Harrison chill that comes up from the Green mountains of Vermont. The republican ticket is elected of course, but by the smallest republican majority ever given at the state election in a presidential year since the organization of the republican party.

Even in 1884, when Senator Edmunds was disgruntled and refused to enter the fight for Blaine, and when Vermont was supposed to have fallen to the lowest figure in the republican majority at the state election, the majority was 22,904. It was the first chill that struck Blaine in that contest and it was the precursor of defeat.

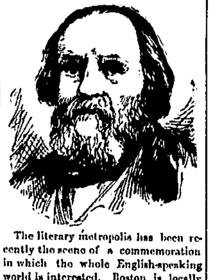
Four years ago, when Harrison and Cleveland made their great battle, Vermont inspired the republicans of the whole country by rolling up within five votes of 29,000 majority. Now, with McKinley and other most impressive campaigners sent there to inspire the party, the republican vote falls off some 20 per cent., while the democratic vote is maintained.

There is much significance in this greatly reduced Harrison majority in Vermont. "The farmers did not generally vote," is the explanation given in the election reports; and why did not the farmers vote? McKinley gave them a liberal bounty on the sugar taken from their God-made forests, but they find increased taxes all along the line on the necessaries of life, with sugar bounties to the few and reduced prices for the products of the farm.

The verdict of Vermont is that New England is neither united nor enthusiastic in the support of Harrison's re-election; and it means that Connecticut and Rhode Island may be classed in the Cleveland electoral column, with Massachusetts and New Hampshire fairly doubtful. Maine is now likely to follow Vermont on Monday next by giving a largely reduced republican majority, and, if so, the Harrison chill will be felt from the eastern to the western sea and from the lakes to the gulf.

HONOR PAID TO EMINENT WORTH.

Edward Everett Hale and His Recent Birthday Commemoration.



The literary metropolis has been recently the scene of a commemoration in which the whole English-speaking world is interested. Boston is locally proud of the author who wrote "A Man Without a Country," but the magnificent tribute of respect paid Edward Everett Hale on the occasion of his entering his seventy-first year, which many illustrious sons of Massachusetts joined to pay, is augmented immeasurably by the genial admiration given a man who excels as a writer in prose and verse and as an orator, and is distinguished as a philanthrophist and religious teacher.

Mr. Hale was born in Boston, in 1822. He is a graduate of Harvard. His first pastoral charge was as at Worcester, Mass., where he preached to a Unitarian congregation ten years. Since 1856 he has had a church in Boston. This simple outline of an eminently useful life might be filled in what a record of literary triumphs exceptional in their number and brilliancy.

Several persons were bitten by a dog belonging to Mr. Schreiber, of Evansville. Among them was Antone Burhoff, a farmer, living three miles away. Recently Mr. Burhoff began acting strangely, and he continually brooded over the fact that some great calamity was impending. Early this week symptoms of hydrophobia developed, and he was removed to St. Mary's hospital, at Evansville, where he lies in a frightful delirium. His death is but a question of hours.

James Ambrose, colored, of Evansville, was found dead. He was born a slave seventy-nine years ago, and when a young man he was hired out to a steamboat company. He embraced the opportunity to escape and went to Australia, where he educated himself. During the war he heard that the government was permitting colored men to fight under the flag, and he returned and fought through the remainder of the war. When peace was declared he settled in Evansville, where he accumulated an estate aggregating several thousand dollars. This was bequeathed to James Holloway, an adopted son.

JOHN PHILLIP SOUSA.

A MAN HONORED AND LOVED BY A NATION.

Romantic Career of the Retired Leader of the United States Marine Band—How His Musical Talents Were Discovered by a Circus Man.

[Special Correspondence.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 26.—Within few weeks President Harrison, Secretary of the Navy Tracy, Secretary of War Elkins, Commanding General Schofield, and all the other official, military and naval dignitaries, as well as the people at large at Washington, particularly the fair sex and the children, regretfully said good bye to Mr. Sousa.

And who is this Mr. Sousa, who is getting the good byes of the great men of the country and of all other classes down to the little children? They all like him and love him. If you look at the modest little cottage on a side street in which he lives you would hardly understand why he is the favorite of the President and cabinet officers. He has done more to drive away the blues and bring happiness into the White House, along the streets, and in the parks and public places where the children assemble by thousands, than any other one man in Washington. Naturally, therefore, all Washington regrets to see him leave for his new home in the West.

This much-liked man is none other than the leader of the United States Marine band. It is not like the bands of other cities, for it is not a commercial organization sustained at so much a day in processions and funerals, and so much a night in theater orchestras. It is the band of the government, over which Uncle Sam himself has long had a fostering care and pride until the old gentleman is very proud of the musical organization which beguiles his leisure hours. Whenever there is a grand reception at the White House, to the diplomatic corps, to the Supreme court justices, or to Congress, the band is a very important factor in the affair. It is stationed in the main corridor, just as you enter the executive mansion, buried in a forest of palms and tropical plants, filling the spacious room and the whole mansion with the ringing music which Sousa has brought to such perfection. He is a little King as he stands, baton in hand, drawing the music out of his forces, and nodding recognition to the dignitaries as they come in. They all know him, and he is as much a character as the President himself. During evenings of the hot summer he and his men play in the circles and parks of Washington, one night in the White House grounds, the next night at the Capitol grounds, and then at the Marine barracks, or the White lots which stretch down to the Potomac. He is omnipresent, and wherever he and his brilliantly-uniformed men go, there is a crowd of thousands, black, white, old and young, and a tangle of fashionable vehicles with interested occupants, following and listening.

I was talking with Sousa the other day, and he told me a good many of his ups and downs, and of the people he had met during his life in Washington. He says President Arthur could not tolerate heavy classical music, and the strains of Lohengrin always put him in a bad humor. But he was very fond of light and airy waltzes and of Spanish fandangos. Often he would send out to Sousa to play the Spanish cachucha, which was his favorite. It was dashing, rollicking, intoxicating melody, which brought visions of ballets done by graceful senoras, and was rather in keeping with the popular estimate of President Arthur's tastes. Mrs. Cleveland's favorite air was an overture from Tannhauser, and it always found a place on the White House program when she was mistress of the executive mansion. President Cleveland had little ear for music, and could hardly distinguish one tune from another. His voice was reasonably good, however, and often while he and Mrs. Cleveland were alone the President would sing baritone solos while she accompanied him on the piano. President and Mrs. Harrison are also music lovers, inclining somewhat to patriotic airs. Mr. Harrison likes the old Southern melodies, such as "Way Down on the Suwanee River," and "Old Black Joe," while Mrs. Harrison's favorite is a dreamy bit of sentimental music called "Good Night, Good Night, Beloved."

Before Sousa got to playing for Presidents and their wives, he was all over the country as musician. A circus was responsible for starting him with the government band. As a youngster he was fond of music and had his violin, trombone, horn, and several other instruments, all of which he played deftly. One day he was playing on his violin, quite oblivious to a circus procession which was passing by, when there was a knock at the door.

"Who is that playing so cleverly?" the bandmaster of the circus, who had left his men to learn who it was that was drawing out such strains from the violin. He was told of young Sousa's ability on various instruments, and at once made him an offer to join the circus band the next night. The boy was to get his father's permission if possible, and failing to get it, was to run away. When the elder Sousa returned and heard of his son's contemplated departure with a circus, he concluded to place the young man beyond the possibilities of running away. The next morning he dressed him up in his best suit of clothes and took him around to a recruiting office to be enlisted. The officer in charge, knowing the musical ability of the young recruit, thought the best place for him was in the government band, so he was accordingly assigned as an apprentice in the organization of which he afterwards became leader.

It may stir the patriotism of Americans to know that Sousa insists that the United States will soon have a music characteristically her own. As yet there is little or no music that is distinctly American. Germany has her music, so has France, so has Italy. And with his years of experience in national music, Sousa says that the day is not far off when there will be a distinctly American type of music. Already the foreign music is far less popular than it used to be, and people in this country are beginning to like the music of their home composers. The large music publishers will pay more for a song by an American than they will if it is written by a foreigner.

"WHO IS THAT PLAYING SO CLEVERLY?"

It indicates that we will not always have to turn to Europe for our operas, popular songs and bright refrains.

Sousa's collection tells how many of these patriotic airs originated under the most peculiar circumstances. For instance "Hail, Columbia" was prepared as an encore song for a Philadelphia theater: just as popular songs are now written for serio-comic singers. This was a number of years ago when war was threatened between France and the United States. The chances of war wrought everyone up to a patriotic pitch. One of the singers at the Philadelphia theater had been accorded a benefit and he was very fearful that the benefit would not yield him much return. He applied to Joseph Hopkinson, a popular scribbler and man-about-town, to get up something which would respond to the patriotic spirit of the people. As he was satisfied that something in that line would fill the theater at the benefit Hopkinson thereupon dashed off "Hail, Columbia" little thinking at the time that it would live to be the patriotic song of America. It was sung at the benefit to a full house amid the greatest enthusiasm. At once it became the popular song of the day, whistled and sung along the streets, and it had its run throughout the country just as "Shoo Fly," "Annie Rooney" and "Boom-te-ra" have had their day. The Philadelphia singer and Hopkinson are long since forgotten, but the song which they prepared on the spur of the moment has stimulated armies and is likely to long remain the national air of America.

Yankee Doodle also had a queer history, according to Sousa's account. When the English troops came over during the revolutionary period to crush the rebellious Yankees, they found a most remarkable army ready to oppose them. It was not such an army as the people of Europe had been in the habit of seeing. The men wore no uniforms, some of them carried pitch-forks instead of guns, many of them were ragged. It was a veritable awkward squad increased to the dimensions of an awkward army These American soldiers set all the British officers to laughing. Among the club of wits that belonged to the British army, there was a surgeon attached to the staff by the name of Dr. Schackburg, who combined with the science of a surgeon the skill and talent of a musician. He composed a tune and with much gravity recommended it to the American officers as one of the most celebrated airs of martial music. The joke took, to the great amusement of the British officers. In a few days nothing was heard in the camps but the air of "Yankee Doodle." Little did the author suppose that an air made for the purpose of levity and ridicule should ever be marked for such high destiny. In a short time "Yankee Doodle" was sounding when the British suffered their repulse at Bunker Hill, and later Lord Cornwallis himself, and his British army, marched into the American lines and surrendered to the tune of "Yankee Doodle."

AN ORDINANCE

An ordinance regulating the maintaining or carrying on concerts, plays or varieties in licensed liquor saloons and providing penalties therefore.

Whereas, The maintaining and carrying on of concerts, plays or varieties, employing male and female performers, or either in saloons, where intoxicating liquors are sold, attract disorderly crowds and tend to disturb the peace and quietude of the public, as well as being opposed to common decency and good morals.

That such evil influences may be abated and the good morals of the city preserved.

Therefore be it ordained by the common council of the city of Fort Wayne two-thirds of all the members concurring, that it shall be unlawful for any person or persons, owning, maintaining or running any saloon in which there is sold intoxicating liquors within the corporate limits of the city of Fort Wayne to carry on, maintain therein or in connection therewith or permit or cause to have carried or maintained therein, or in connection therewith, any public concert, play or variety show, free or otherwise, employing, engaging or permitting to take part therein male and female performers or either.

Sec. 2. Any person or persons violating any provision of this ordinance shall, upon conviction, forfeit the license and pay a fine of not more than one hundred dollars.

Done at the council chamber, city of Fort Wayne, Ind., this 30th day of August, 1892.

C. A. ZOLLINGER, Mayor.

Attest: RUDY C. REINEWALD, city clerk.

It's a queer thing

Why everybody doesn't use Pearline. Here and there, though, there's a woman who's been left behind. The world has moved along without her. What she needs to know is this—that in washing clothes or cleaning house, Pearline will save half her work, half her time, and do away with the rub, rub, rub, that wears things out—that it costs no more than common soap, and does no more harm.

And if she wants to know it, there are millions of women who can tell her.

Beware Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you, "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never peddled, if your grocer sends you an imitation, be honest—send it back. 315 JAMES PYLE, New York.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Accidents, Incidents, and Personal Mention of the People About the Railway Centers.

Frank Davis, engineer on the Nickel Plate, is off duty.

C. Yohly has accepted a position in the Pittsburg lumber yards.

Ed. Wolfe, engineer on the Nickel Plate, is off attending the races.

Nickel Plate Engineer Daniel McFee is off duty attending to private business.

Car Repairer Rogie, of the Nickel Plate, on account of sickness, is laying off.

Walter Abbott, of the electric works, has returned from his outing at Blue lake.

Nickel Plate Brakeman Rundel, after a few days' sickness, has reported for work.

Clerk G. A. Schust, of the Murray shops, returned to work yesterday after a short illness.

The Wabash freight house received 150 bushels of onions from Antwerp, Ohio, yesterday.

Next Sunday the Wabash will lay the rails for a new and long switch in the east yards at Logansport.

Charles Todd, fireman on the Nickel Plate, went last night to Decatur, Ill., where he will visit friends.

Cheney Knight, of the testing department of the electric works, laid off yesterday to attend the races.

Fireman J. S. Neill, of the Nickel Plate, has reported for duty, after a few days' lay-off to attend the races.

The electric works have received orders in the last few days for twelve of the Slattery incandescent machines.

The Baltimore and Ohio and other roads running into Clarksburg, W. Va., are building a union station there to cost $236,000.

Tennyson Weisell, operator on the Pittsburg road, has returned from Hammond, where he has been visiting friends for a few days.

James Kent, of the construction department at the electric works, left for Youngstown, Ohio, yesterday in the interests of the company.

There were two excursions yesterday on the Nickel Plate, one from Argus and the other from Leipsic, each of which brought in about 250 people.

Pat Scully, of the Pittsburg car shops, is off today to attend the funeral of his late friend, Alexander McDonald, the brakeman recently killed on the Pittsburg.

The Pittsburg division of the Order of Railway Telegraphers has reached a membership of 496, making it the second largest division in the United States.

General Manager McDoel, of the Louisville, New Albany and Chicago railroad, Tuesday entered the thirty-second year of his railway career. He began at the bottom.

James McCrea, first vice president of the Pennsylvania company, has returned from a month's vacation. General Manager Joseph Wood is now enjoying a two weeks' vacation.

Mr. Lycinger, of the electric works, is running the electric plant at the school for feeble minded youth in the absence of Mr. Dono, who had the misfortune yesterday to break one of his fingers.

James O'Connell, foreman of the finishing department of the Fort Wayne furniture works, left for Fairmouth, Ind., yesterday to attend the reunion of his old regiment, the 130th Indiana volunteers.

Division 149, of New York, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, has the largest membership, it numbering 293. Jersey City, No. 3, comes next with 240, and Indianapolis third, with 206 members.

The Wabash machine shops are crowded with work at present. Six engines have just been brought in for repairs. The workmen expect to have No. 174, the one that was in the wreck a few weeks ago, out by next week.

Joe Michaels, of the Murray shops, was the only man in the whole establishment who held out to the last for Corbett. All the rest finally changed over to Sullivan and now the boys consider Michaels authority on sporting topics.

Anthony Furtz, a laborer at the water works reservoir, had the little finger of his right hand mashed yesterday by having a pail of bricks fall on his hand. It is feared amputation will be necessary. Dr. J. E. Miller dressed the wound.

Grand Chief Arthur says the story originating with an eastern paper about his conferring with Vice-President Webb, of the New York central, and securing concessions for the Locomotive Engineers' Brotherhood, is a lie and he cannot imagine why any newspaper should publish it.

No. 82, a Baldwin compound engine, brought the second section of Nickel Plate train No. 3 down from Chicago yesterday. The engine went east to Leipsic Junction, where it switched off the Nickel Plate onto the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton road, where it will be on exhibition a few days.

E. B. Walls, of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg, states that the cholera excitement has not caused the company to make any change in its plans as regards the purchase of new equipment to handle the world's fair business.

Yesterday was pay day at the Standard Wheel company.

Fred Berghorn, of the Pittsburg boiler shop, is seriously ill.

Max Claus and Joe Manier, of the Bass wheel department, are sick.

Engineer L. Sweeney, of the Pittsburg, attended the races yesterday.

Engineer J. H. Baughman, is taking a lay-off this week to attend the races.

James Trythall, of the Pittsburg blacksmith shop, is not working today.

No. 7, on the Pittsburg, was an hour and thirty minutes late yesterday evening.

Brakeman Sheehee, of the Nickel Plate, is laying off on account of illness.

The Wabash company is whitewashing its overhead bridges all along the road.

M. Weyer, of the Pittsburg round house, has reported after a short absence.

Herman Harber, son of Peter Harber, of the Pittsburg machine shops, is seriously ill.

The Pittsburg is putting up a large number of nice new mile posts all along the road.

Fred Enze, moulder at the Bass foundry, laid off yesterday on account of sickness.

J. H. Harker, fireman on the Nickel Plate, is off duty on account of the sickness of his brother.

John Lynch, of the Pittsburg tin shop, reported for duty this morning after a short illness.

R. S. Miller, chief car inspector of the Nickel Plate, from Buffalo to Stony Island, is in the city.

The Pennsylvania company is filling up its lumber yards here preparatory for a lot of new work.

Fireman Hollenkemp, of the Nickel Plate, who has been sick for the past week, has reported for work.

John Rhinesmith, of the firm of Rhinesmith & Simonson, went east yesterday on a business trip.

John Buchfink, of Rhinesmith & Simonson's, and Mrs. Buchfink have returned from Hartford City.

Chauncey Thomas, of Rhinesmith & Simonson's, laid off yesterday to attend the wedding of his sister.

E. W. Keller, of the Pittsburg machine shops, returned to work this morning after a short vacation.

Fireman O. V. Robinson, of the Grand Rapids, reported for duty this morning after an absence from sickness.

F. Westerman, of the Bass blacksmith shop, has accepted a position with the Big Four railway at Wabash, Ind.

Pete Aller, formerly of the Pittsburg car shops, has accepted a position in Graffe's grocery store, on Lafayette street.

A large number of race horses is being shipped over the Pittsburg at present. A majority of them are on route to the Richmond races.

C. C. Ward, fireman on the Pittsburg, has gone as a delegate to the convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen at Cincinnati.

Several of the boys at the electric works are ahead on the Corbett-Sullivan contest, but more of them are out, as they expected Sullivan to win.

Louis Haury, clerk at the Bass machine shops; Ed Shockler and Frank Rhuark, machinists at the same place, took in the races yesterday afternoon.

Louis Rhodenbeck and Fred Netty, moulders at the Bass foundry, have resigned their positions. The latter will accept a situation on the Nickel Plate.

Robert H. Harrison, the genial foreman of the Pittsburg machine shops, wishes his many friends to know that he won a number of bets on Corbett. Mostly cigars, says Mr. Harrison.

The Southern Pacific railway has recently subscribed for $20,000 of world's fair stock. The various transportation lines of the country have taken an aggregate of about $1,000,000 of the stock.

A. Z. Polhamus, secretary of the Bowser Oil Tank company, went to Petoskey yesterday to remain over Sunday with his father, A. H. Polhamus, road foreman of the Pennsylvania company.

Arrangements have been completed whereby excursion trains to the world's fair, by whatever road they may arrive in Chicago, will run within the exposition grounds and discharge their passengers there. No transfer of passengers at any point will be necessary.

The voluntary relief department of the Pennsylvania lines is enjoying a general boom. The medical examiners of each division are overcrowded and in two cases have asked for assistance. The Pittsburg division increased the last twenty days of August 300 members.

George McLaughlin, of the electric works, has returned from Indianapolis, where he has been looking after his interests in the Iron Hall association. He is interested in the association to the extent of about $500, and thinks the stockholders will get out, at least, what they have paid in.

The boys of the Anthony Wayne Manufacturing company noticed something strange about their general foreman, Herman Wiehman, yesterday morning. Upon investigation it was found that a twelve pound boy had arrived at his house. He bears the honors gracefully and the boys smoke at his expense.

A. M. Richardson, claim agent of the Pennsylvania company, is on the sick list.

Several of the boys at the Pittsburg freight house attended the races yesterday afternoon.

Fireman F. Schaffer, of the Pittsburg, has reported after a short vacation in the country.

Otto Ritchey, checkman at the Pittsburg freight house, is off duty today on account of a slight illness.

Fireman N. H. Kohler and Engineer A. Koons, of the Pittsburg, have reported for duty after a short illness.

Sunday the Nickel Plate road will issue its new time cards. It will give place to two additional passenger trains and two locals, the latter to run from Knox to Chicago. The experiment trains, which have been running for the past two weeks, have been so decided a success that they will be continued regularly.

The Indianapolis Journal says: "Albert Heading, who is running engine 39 on the Vandalia, which is being run without eccentrics or links, taking its valve motion from the cross-heads, states that the engine is performing finely. While it does not increase the power, it does its speed, he thinks. The engine, as now geared, has been running ten days, doing good work. He thinks it could be made less cumbersome and simplified somewhat and do just as good work. This was the first device of the kind built, and of course the inventor, who is a St. Louis mechanic, did not expect to make it perfect at the first attempt."

Fruit House Prices for 1892.

The season of 1892 opens auspicious for the purchaser. There are few lines of goods but what there has been a decline in, and especially in sugars, but also in Coffees, Raisins and California Dried and Canned Fruits. When Sugars touched 5c for Granulated every one felt as this would be bottom, for that was a plump reduction of 2c per pound, but now Granulated is 4½, another half-cent decline. At no time in World's History has Sugars been so low as now. We even sell a good

THE NEW YORK STORE.

Paul Corneille, a young man employed at the City Flouring mills, had a hand badly crushed yesterday. He was working about the elevator and got his hand into the cog wheels. Dr. S. C. Metcalf, who attended the lad, says that amputation of any part of the hand will not be necessary, though the wound is very painful and will be some weeks in healing.

Miss Celia Smith, of Decatur, is visiting friends in the city.

Ivan Dove, electrician at the Electric light station of the feeble minded children's school, had his right hand badly cut while working a coupling about the machinery yesterday. Dr. Heaton attended the sufferer and stitched his wounds. The bone of the right fore-finger is broken.

Misses Mamie Warman and Mary Bunger, of Indianapolis, are visiting Mrs. John S. McCurdy, of West Berry street.

School Opens Monday, Sept. 12.

SCHOOL SUITS
SCHOOL SUITS

This will be a bright season for Boys' Clothing. A few days will find them wrestling with verbs and chasing demerit marks. Do you think of letting your boys wear their old suits to these new labors? Clothe them with new suits and they'll pay you back with new grit for their studies and new wit for their behavior.

The Beauty Spot in Our Store

Is the boys' department. It is not only the increased skill, the wider selections and the uniformly low prices, but the originality and beauty of our exclusive designs that are telling in our favor with accumulating power.

The approaching season has many surprises in store for seekers after boys' perfect clothing. Our strength will be demonstrated not only in the elegant and higher-priced suits, but also in good wear-resisting and knock-about kind at $1.50, $2, $2.50, $3, $3.50, $4, $4.50 and $5, the variety of which will be far greater than anyone will stay to look at.

We Have No Compction.

So to speak, in Boys' Clothing. The best our competitors can claim for their stock is that "it is as good as our's". It's not to be wondered at that so few people take them at their word.

Hats! Hats! Hats!

The festive straw hat takes a back-seat this month, and we come to the front with a stock of FALL Hats, absolutely correct in every detail of shape and color. There's one feature of our Hat stock that we want to emphasize—it is a unique feature—we can show you, not only one, but ALL of the fashionable blocks. You pay your money—about one third less than hatters charge—and take your choice.

DECIDEDLY RICH.

The New York World and Hon. Chas. McCulloch.

"What is new today?" said THE SENTINEL to Hon. R. C. Bell, the well known lawyer and democratic politician.

"Nothing that I know of," was the reply, "but did you notice the telegram in the New York World of Wednesday, from this city, stating that Charles McCulloch, the president of the Hamilton National bank, had announced his intention of voting for Cleveland?"

"No, I didn't," was THE SENTINEL'S answer. "Is that any news?"

"The telegram is decidedly rich, isn't it? McCulloch for years, as you know, has been one of our most prominent democrats."

"Many of the readers of THE SENTINEL will remember W. H. Scudder, who some years ago held an editorial position on your paper," continued Mr. Bell. "He was private secretary under Commissioner of Pensions Black, and now resides in Washington. He is a brilliant writer and the author of several French novels, which have gained a wide circulation."

THEOSOPHY TALK.

An Article Read Last Evening by Mrs. Chas. T. Taylor.

At the rooms of the Theosophical society last evening a select article was read by Mrs. Julia B. Taylor entitled, "The Place of Peace," by Anna Besant, F. T. S. An extract of the article is as follows:

Man is an immortal being, clad in a garb of flesh, which is vivified and moved by desires and passions, and which he links to himself by a thread of his immortal nature; this thread is the mind, and this mind, unsubdued and inconstant, wanders out among the things of earth, is moved by the passions and desires, hopes and fears, longs to taste all cups of sense-delights, is dazzled and deafened by the radience and the tumult of its surroundings. And thus, as Arjuna complained, the "mind is full of agitation, turbulent, strong and obstinate." Above this whirling wind, serene and passionless witness, dwells the true self, the spiritual Ego man. Below there may be storm, but above there is calm, and there is the place of peace. For that self is eternal and what to it are things of time, save as they bring experience, the knowledge of good and wit? So often, dwelling in its house of clay, it has known birth and death, gains and losses, joys and griefs, pleasures and pains, that it sees them all pass by as a moving phantasmagoria, and no ripple ruffles its passionless serenity. Does agony effect its outer case? It is but a notice that harmony has been broken and the pain is welcome as pointing to the failure and as bearing lesson of avoidance of that whence it sprang. For the true self has to conquer the material plane, to purify and sublimate it, and only by suffering can it learn how to perform its work.

The first of these can be gained only by a constant and wise self-discipline.

The second of these methods is "carelessness as to results."

The third method, meditation, is the more efficacious and the most difficult. It consists of a constant endeavor to realize one's identity with one's true self, and to become self-conscious here as it is. "To whatsoever object the inconstant mind goeth out he should subdue it, bring it back, and place it upon the spirit."

Judge E. O'Rourke followed, giving an explanation.

TO TALK TIN.

Go to Elwood and Hear the Greatest Political Speeches of the Campaign.

EDITOR SENTINEL:

DEAR SIR:—On Tuesday, September 13, probably the largest mass meeting of the campaign will be held at Elwood, Ind., on which occasion the tin plate works of that city will be opened and the meeting addressed by Governor McKinley, Governor Fifer and other prominent republicans. All the industries of the city will be in operation and those attending can see tin made from start to finish from American materials.

A special train will leave Fort Wayne from the Wabash depot at 6:40 o'clock a. m., arriving at Elwood about 10 o'clock, and will return that evening. The fare for the round trip has been placed at the low figure of $1.75 and tickets are now on sale at republican headquarters, at room 65, Aveline house, and also at C. B. Woodworth's drug store and Gross & Pellens' drug store and Wabash ticket office. It is desired that tickets be bought as early as possible so that the railroad company can be informed of the accommodations required.

Very respectfully,

9-3t W. J. VESEY, Chairman.

An entirely new line of fine Cakes, Angel Food, Sunshine Cake, and a full assortment of small and large cakes of all kinds. Barcus bakery. 9 2t.
